Individual Coaches, Instructors and Officials are responsible for ensuring they conform to the standards of conduct, behaviour, fair and inclusive treatment, etiquette and good manners specified in these Standards and in all applicable British Gymnastics Regulations and policies.

Coaches, Instructors and Officials must ensure that they receive training and understand their responsibilities under the policies concerned as they apply to the activities they undertake.

Failure to comply with the Constitution, Regulations and the Standards of Conduct in this document may lead to disciplinary or other action being taken, as described in British Gymnastics' Complaints & Disciplinary Policy and Procedures.

These Standards of Conduct prohibit conduct ranging from extremely serious criminal acts to unsportsmanlike behaviour or a lack of courtesy. It is recognised by British Gymnastics that not all breaches will justify the taking of formal disciplinary action. Clubs and Affiliated Associations will be able to resolve, formally or informally, many issues arising from breaches occurring within their own activities. British Gymnastics encourages all Coaches, Instructors, Officials and participants to work together in a collaborative manner to identify and resolve minor breaches.

British Gymnastics Policies

British Gymnastics clubs required to comply with these Standards of Conduct are also required to comply with all policies issued by British Gymnastics including, but not limited to:

- Safeguarding Policy
- Health, Safety and Welfare Policy and supporting documents
